DAVE BOYD - 1978 TOURNAMENT M.V.P.

TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The original tournament began in 1967 as the Loyola Centennial Tournament. During its six year history, the Loyola Tourney attracted such outstanding teams as Michigan Tech, Harvard, Boston College, Boston University, Clarkson, Toronto, Alberta, St. Mary's and Sir George.

The Centennial Tournament was superseded by Hockey Canada which Loyola hosted for two years. Hockey Canada discontinued it's sponsorship and Sir George Williams University continued the tourney in 1974-75. With the merger of Loyola and Sir George the tourney again changed its name. The Concordia Tournament is now in its 4th year and now with the backing of a major skate manufacturer "Micron", it will certainly continue as Canada's outstanding College Hockey Tournament.

* PLAYERS WHO HAVE TURNED PROFESSIONAL

One of the primary objectives of the tournament is to give Montreal's young hockey players an opportunity to view Canada's best College Hockey players in action, illustrating that it is possible to combine a high level of hockey performance, while pursuing a university education. Over the past 3 years 10 of the tournament All-Stars have graduated to various levels of professional hockey, including Jim Corsi of the Quebec Nordiques, Dave Taylor of the Los Angeles Kings and Mac Davis with the Detroit Redwings.

DALHOUSIE

Coach Pierre Pagé has thirteen players returning from his 1978 squad which barely missed a playoff spot. Included in the lettermen are All-Star defenseman, Allie MacDonald, goaltender, Ken Bickerton and Pennsylvanian, Earl Jessiman. The Tigers have had their most impressive start in years with double victories over St. Mary's and 15-3 and 10-0 routs of Concordia and Trois Rivières.

Currently they are 5-1-0 and a definite threat for league and national honors. This will be Dal's first appearance in the tourney, following in the footsteps of Acadia and St. Mary's. The Stingers will be hard pressed to avenge their early season loss against the much improved Tigers. This matchup should be one of the highlights of the Tournament.
